PIERCE BROOKS WOULD AID GOVERNOR O'DANIEL

Pierce Brooks, Candidate for Railroad Commissioner, has pledged full co-operation to Governor O'Daniel in his plans to co-ordinate Texas resources with the National preparedness and defense program.

Brooks related that as soon as Governor O'Daniel was nominated that he sent him a telegram pledging his full co-operation.

"I feel that Texas, producing half the Nation's oil, has a very important spot in the preparedness picture," Brooks said. "As the chief executive of Texas, Governor O'Daniel will take the lead in co-ordinating the great resources of Texas with Federal plans. As a public official I shall carry out the pledge I made in the beginning of my campaign to lend my fullest co-operation to him in this work.

"The time has come in Texas and in the Nation when professional politics must be laid aside and all of us must work for the common good regardless of former political alignments.

"This is no time when the public should be worried about who the next Chairman of the Railroad Commission may be, or who will hold a majority on the three-man board. It is immaterial who the Chairman is. It is purely an empty honor.. The majority vote on the Commission ought always to be in favor of the general welfare of the people. That's where my vote will be cast every time. When Col Thompson is right I will vote with him. When Jerry Sadler is right I will vote with him. When, in my opinion, either or both of them are wrong, I will vote against them. My obligation will be to the people, and to no politician. I will do my duty on the Commission independently and without regard to the political fortunes of any man or any clique which may desire control of the Commission.

"Every effort known to the professional politician has been employed in an effort to get me to digress from the discussion of principles and indulge in personalities," the red headed Dallas candidate said. "My conception of a place on the Railroad Commission is that it is one of high honor, offering a rare opportunity for good public service. I shall not drag that high position in the dust by even noticing the petty charges of disappointed professional politicians, who are only hoping that I give them some publicity."

Brooks reiterated that, as Railroad Commissioner, he would not discriminate against worthy men and women who have passed the age of 45 years. "The problem of educating nearly grown children is facing many of these. It is not right that they should be thrown in the discard." Brooks said.

He also promises a 25 per cent reduction in the operating expenses of the Railroad Commission and full co-operation in the regulation of Texas natural resources with the preparedness program of the Federal government.

"As Railroad Commissioner I can and will deal uniformly and fairly with all the oil fields. I will not shut down one field and allow another to operate. I will not reduce the allowable of one well and increase that of another. With a uniform yardstick, I shall treat each and every one of them exactly alike. However honest the motives of a man may be, if he resides and has his interests in one of these great fields, he is prejudiced in its favor."

Brooks told his Taylor audience that he would secure a reduction in gas utility rates in Texas. "I will get rates reduced for the consumer without ballyhoo and without making gas rates a political issue," the candidate said.

He also declared in favor of an increase in the truck load limit. "This is a legislative matter but I will use my influence in behalf of our farmers, ranchers and little independent truckers," Brooks said.

Brooks closed his speech with an appeal to the voters to go to the polls and vote for him on August 24th and to put into office a man who is qualified and who will restore harmony between the Railroad Commission and the Governor.

HITLER IS FACING FIRST REAL BATTLE

Sensational victory of the royal air force of Great Britain in the last seven days of battle over England was declared today to have definitly brought about possibilities of defeat for Adolf Hitler.

Two Weeks ago British chances to win the war did not exist. Today as more than one thousand Nazi planes were lost over the British Isles many military experts were saying that Great Britain will soon have the advantage over Germany in fighting ships.

On Sunday as Germany renewed her assaults on the British Isles a total of 147 Nazi planes were shot down. The British have been taking a toll of approximately one hunded planes each day and according to a government statement early Monday more than one thousand planes had been shot down since the air blitzkrieg began.

The British appeared definitely on the offensive today as they bombed Italy and also were reported to have bombed Vichy, the capital of France.

Devastation has been wrought over a wide area of industrial Germany in the last twenty four hours while a great Armada of German planes were driven back in their attempted invasion of the British capital.

Germany sent a warning to England today through Switzerland, warning the British not to shoot or to mistreat parachute troops dropped on the British Isles. It will be remembered that the Germans issued the same warning to Holand, France and Belgium.

The United States government again today told Germany that the United States army transport, American Legion, must come through safely regardless of what route the ship may choose. The ship is bringing American refugees from Petsamo, Finland, back to the United States.

Governor O'Daniel Indorses Whom?

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel released a statement to the press early Thursday asking the people to vote for those candidates who have pledged their support to him and who are in favor of the old age pension and the social security program.

This announcement was looked upon by supporters of Olin Culberson as indorsement of their candidate.

Pierce Brooks who has been campaigning for railroad commissioner in the run off primary has supported Governor O'Daniel in two campaigns. Mr. Brooks has sought the support of the O'Daniel people in the run off but the governor has declined to indorse anyone.

How supporters of Olin Culberson may use the statement by O'Daniel as favoradble to their candidate is not clear. If the radio broadcast at noon Thursday is correct Governor O'Daniel has indorsed Brooks without naming him.

Ernest O. Thompson, member of the railroad commission, and defeated candidate for Governor, indorsed Olin Culberson because he wants control of the railroad commission. O'Daniel is bitter over the campaign made against him by Thompson.

It is hardly to be expected that O'Daniel would indorse Thompson's candidate.

This news story originating in Austin today is confusing.

THE MODERN WAY

In savage tribes where skulls are thick
And primal passions rage,
They have a system sure and quick
To cure the blight of age.

For when a native's youth has fled
And years have snapped his vim,
They simply knock him in the head
And put an end to him.

But we in this enlightened age
Are built of sterner stuff,
And so we look with righteous rage
On deeds so harsh and rough.

For when a man gows old and gray
And weak and short of breath,
We simply take his job away
And let him starve to death!

INTEREST CHIEFLY IN LOCAL RACES; LIGHT VOTE IS SEEN

Interest in the Primary election to be held on Saturday, August 24th, was centered chiefly in local races where run offs resulted from the indecisive vote on July 27th.

In State races Pierce Brooks and Olin Culberson contesting for Railroad Commissioner were taking the limelight over all other races. In the Sureme Court race Judge James P. Alexander of Waco and Judge Lattimore of Fort Worth were battling it out.

In Milam County Nelson Green, young Cameron attorney, is in a run off with W. A. (Bill) Morrison, Criminal District Attorney, running for a second term.

In the race for County Suerintendent, Mrs. Guy T. Newton, encumbent, seeking to serve the unexpired term of her late husband, was being opposed by Charles M. Hicks, widely known educator.

For District Clerk the veteran Penn Wolf was being opposed by W. C. (Nig) Moody of Minerva, who led the ticket in the first primary by 564 votes.

In Constable Precinct 1 at Cameron Pete Harwell, defeated two years ago, was opposing B. F. Bailey, the encumbent, and these races completed the picture the voters will see on next Saturday when they go to the polls.

A light vote was forecast due to lack of interest compared with that of the first primary.

ROOSEVELT TRYING TO AID THE BRITISH

The British government announced today that the forces of the empire will go to the defense of Greece if that nation resists an invasion by Italy.

This was taken to indicate that relations between the two countries have become extremely gave.

The Greeks are reported to be concentrating every available soldier on the Albanian frontier.

The British navy in the Mediterranean is said to be superior to that of Italy, including units of the French navy which were taken over after the collapse of France.

The British government said today that Germany has lost 9,600 air planes since the beginning of the war and of this number the British have accounted for 3,500.

Relations between Italy and Greece became more intense today when Italy revealed that her demands will be possession of the peninsula and a small island off the Greek coast. Italy is resentful of the presence of British warships at Saloniki, a Greek seaport.

President Roosevelt was back in Washington today to work on national defense and it was said is considering a plan to transfer 50 old destroyers to the Britain government.

The Germans are using a new type of bomb said to be so powerful that holes 30 feet deep are blasted in the earth.

The British have bombed air ports in Germany and air attacks on the British Isles had practically ceased today. The Germans have switched their attack to the Irish coast and are said to be taken a heavy toll of merchant shipping.

Oxsheer Smith Writes Publisher From Plane In Washington Flight

Late Friday the Herald publisher received a letter from Oxsheer Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank.

The letter was written aboard plane in flight to Washington. Mr. Smith wrote the letter in flight between Nashville, Tennessee and Washington. The letter was mailed by air from the nation's capital.

Mr. Smith was aboard an American Airlines ship and on his way to Washington for a few days and from that city will go to New York City. He will spend about two weeks in Gardiner, Maine, with Mrs. Smith who is visiting relatives. They expect to be back in Cameron about September 1st.

For several months the Herald has sought data on the business career of Irvin Clary, former Cashier of Citizens National Bank. In this issue a story is printed, prepared by the publisher based on information furnished by Mr. Smith who found time in flight to send the information sought several months ago.

Editor Gets Finest Apples From Pioneer Resident in Cameron

The season's finest apples—two very large ones—reached the desk of the Herald publisher shortly after noon Tuesday when Walter Lucas of the McLane Company, visited the offices of the editor.

These apples were grown by Mrs W. M. Lucas, mother of Walter Lucas. The interesting story behind these apples is that they grew from a volunteer tree. Volunteer trees are those that grow up from seeds that fall carelessly to the ground and not planted.

The apple tree, a delicious, grew up in the Lucas yard. There were about 100 large apples on the tree.

Last week Mrs. Ellie Lewis of Liberty brought a very fine apple to the Editor. If these apples are indications of growing possibilities here Milam county can become a great apple producing area.

The publisher and those in the Herald plant congratulate Mrs. Lucas and many thanks are extended for her thoughtfulness.

INSURANCE COMPANY EXPERIENCE

In the June, 1940, number of "Trimmings," published by North & Judd Manufacturing Co., there is an interesting article that tells of the action of a large insurance company with reference to farms that it has taken over by foreclosure. Here is the item:

"A large insurance company has thousands of farms taken over by deed or foreclosure, which have been rehabilitated and rented or sold. From the reports of operations of these farms, the Agricultural Director has come to the conclusion that tractors are unprofitable, and have no place on farms of less than 160 acres. Those frams can show better incomes and higher profits if they depend on horse power.

"This conclusion should be reliable, because of the vast amount of accurate data on which it is based. If it is, it applies to approximately 5,000,000 of the 6,812,350 farms in the United States."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Mind" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 25.

The Golden Text is: "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: . . . he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding" (Daniel 2:20, 21.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exodus 20:1-3.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The divine Principle of the First Commandment bases the Science of being, by which man demonstrates health, holiness, and life eternal" (page 340.)

Vegetable Laxative Has Important Points

Most people want a laxative to do three things: (1) act punctually, (2) act thoroughly, (3) act gently.

Here's one that usually fills all three requirements when the easy directions are followed. It's an all-vegetable product whose principal ingredient has medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative."

That's the ingredient which enables BLACK-DRAUGHT to help tone lazy bowel muscles. It is the main reason for the satisfying relief from constipation that generally follows next morning when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime. The millions of packages used are proof of its merit.

To the People of Milam County

I am making this final appeal to you to give me your support in my effort to be elected to serve the remainder of my husband's term as County Superintendent. If I have not been able to see you I ask your forgiveness, and I assure you that I want your vote.

I have conducted my campaign without trying to cast any reflections on my opponent. If you will remember, I promised to make every HONEST effort to win the race. I have never denied the fact that at one time I told Mr. Hicks I could not run. Perhaps you do not know that before my husband was buried I was told that Mr. Hicks was planning to try to get this place, and even in my grief the thought came to me that it was very early for one who was supposed to be Guy's good friend to have this in his mind. From the time I went in the office I was repeatedly urged by different people that I should hurry and come to a decision, as Mr. Hicks was anxious to know what I was going to do. At a time when I was desperately harassed, when my nerves were almost shattered and I could think of nothing, day or night, but a lonely grave, when I felt the world was against me and there was no use to struggle, I told Mr. Hicks that I did not intend to run. There was no obligation on my part to do this. Later I came to the realization that I must support my family. I felt that if you were willing for my husband to have the income from this position to take care of us during the term which extends through 1942, perhaps you would be willing for me to have this same position and income for the time which he would have served. I reasoned that I would not be taking a job from anyone else. So, regardless of what you may have been told, I assure you I made my own decision without suggestions from anyone, and that there was no trade and no promise between me and any individual concerning a reward, either of money or a job, in return for support of any kind. I want you to understand that before I put my formal announcement in the paper that I was a candidate, I sent Mr. Hicks a copy of what was to go in the paper.

If anything unfair or unture has been said in my campaign, or if anything has been misrepresented, such was certainly not my intention. I wish I could say as much for those who have been interested in the opposition. While I have been busy in the office attending to my work, there have been some who have busied themselves in making untrue statements concerning me. Some of these rumors were started before the first primary; others have been started recently. My heartbreak, despair and hopelessness over the loss of the husband I loved so dearly have been publicized by my opponent, and have been used as weapons against me. I have been accused of things I had never thought of; I have been held responsible for things over which I had no control. I have already corrected these falsehoods at every possible opportunity, and as you are reasonable, justice-loving people, I know you are too sensible to believe them now.

I earnestly plead with you to give me the chance that any woman would ask for under the circumstances, the chance that any man would want given to his family if he were suddenly taken away from them. Please vote for me on August 24 to finish my husband's unexpired term.

MRS. GUY T. NEWTON

CANAL ZONE BASES ARE ASKED OF GREAT BRITAIN

Two thousand German bombers were said Friday to be taking part in the greatest air attack in all history.

Shortly after noon a national broadcast said that a great air battle was going on over the city of London. The British reported 170 German planes shot down on Thursday.

The outskirts of London were bombed.

The Germans claim that British resistance is faltering and the air forces may soon be blasted from the skies.

In Washington President Roosevelt said he is negotiating with Great Britain for naval and air bases in the vicinity of the Panama Canal Zone. Whether these negotiations had to do with the proposed sale of 50 American destroyers to England, could not be ascertained.

Greece was reported today to be arranging for mobilization of all her armed forces.

Proof that an Italian submarine sank a Greek cruiser was announced.

The Germans are increasing their air attacks with more planes each day and the entire German air force was expected to be used if necessay to subdue England.

So far as known no attempts have yet been made to land troops in England. Damage to the industrial sections of the British Isles will no doubt be stupendous when the air raids have taken their full toll.

Merchants Like the Midget Week End Big Circulation

As a result of the announced service of the Daily Midget to print 2000 copies of the paper for the Week end merchandising of Cameron merchants, the advertising volume has been increased.

This policy will continue as long as the merchants feel the investment is profitable.

Those who want display advertising in the Daily should anticipate their demands in advance of the week because space is so limited at that period all ads cannot be accommodated.

The Daily Herald is read by more people than any other publication in Cameron, including the weekly Herald. Space in the Daily is thereby of great value to merchants.

Texas A & M college is honoring George Banzhaf by giving him the position of "County Agent Emeritus." He holds the nationwide record for the longest service as a county agent. Although Mr. Banzhaf will retire from his regular duties he will remain here as consulting assistant to the new agent.

Mr. Stufflebeme and M. T. Payne, district agent for district 8, were visitors in Cameron Thursday and were present for the meeting of the Commissioners' Court.

Mr. Payne made to following statement to the Daily Herald: "A & M college appreciates the extraordinary cooperation we have received from the commissioners' court in Milam County and the business men of this section as well. They have never refused financial aid to the college."

EDITOR GETS FINE APPLE FROM LIBERTY READER

One of the largest and finest apples ever seen in Cameron was brought to the Herald office early Saturday by Judge Jeff T. Kemp.

The apple was sent to the editor of the Herald by Mrs. Ellie Lewis of Liberty. Last year, readers will recall, Mrs. Lewis sent some of these fine apples to the Herald.

The tree from which this apple was plucked grew up from a seed planted several years ago, taken from a Delicious apple, by Mrs. Lewis.

The growth and production of the tree has been most remarkable. Mrs. Lewis gets the grand prize for the best apples ever produced in Milam county and the Editor sends his thanks.

NEW SERVICE INAUGURATED BY THE DAILY MIDGET

Beginning August 16th the Daily Herald will issue two thousand copies for the benefit of food merchants.

Friday advertising is attractive for week end city buying.

In the event the merchants do not take advantage of these publication days, the extra thousand copies will not be printed.

Each day 1000 copies are printed. The publishers will double the circulation on Friday if merchants generally will contract to use a limited amount of space.

It is the most valuable advestising offer ever made in Cameron.

TO THE VOTERS OF MILAM COUNTY

The statement to follow is in no way intended as a criticism or reflection upon the candidacy of my opponent Mrs. Newton. It is instead issued solely to clear up certain misunderstandings on the part of some of the voters of Milam County concerning the circumstances under which I entered and have conducted the race for the County Superintendency

During the fall of 1939, I was repeatedly urged by numerous rural school teachers of Milam County to announce for the County Superintendent's office. My invariable reply was that I would not consider such a step if Mrs. Newton planned to announce for the office and that I felt that she should be allowed to decide her course of action without outside pressure. For this reason I at no time broached this subject to Mrs. Newton. Around the middle of last December, however, Mrs. Newton voluntarily called me to her office, told me that she had fully considered the question, had decided not to enter the race, and encouraged me to do so. She furthermore voluntarily assured me of her vote and influence and agreed that it was advisable for me to announce soon, in order to afford ample time for becoming known in sections of the County where I had previously had no opportunity of meeting the voters.

Since I felt that the County Superintendent's Office affected most vitally the Milam County trustees and teachers, I addressed to them, before making announcement, a letter declaring my intention to enter the race. In order, however, to afford Mrs. Newton every opportunity to reconsider her decision, I first showed this letter to her and mailed it only after she had told me to go ahead. On January 11, my formal announcement first appeared in the newspapers, following which other candidates entered the race. Around February 15, Mrs. Newton voluntarily called at my home to tell me that she was being urged by certain persons to announce and that she was considering doing so. I replied that I should appreciate her letting me know as soon as she had reached a decision.

Between February 21 and 29, Mrs. Newton published in every paper in Milam County the following statement:

* * * * * * * *

"More than two months ago, I made the statement that I would not be a candidate for the office of County Superintendent in the forth-coming election. Since that time, a number of my friends have offered me their loyal support and encouragement if I should decide to make the race, and recently I have been re-considering the matter, but still feel that I should not seek the office.

"As most of you know, the past five months have been the hardest that I have ever had to endure. The very foundation of my life was swept away with the death of my husband, and it seemed to me there was nothing I could ever be able to do and that it made no difference whether I ever tried again. Then following this there came the realization that on me alone depended the task of making a living for my three children, and only for that reason did I think for a time I might make the race.

"I have decided that I cannot afford to risk the expense of my finances or my strength and even though I may not be able to care for my three children as well financially as I might wish, I believe that they are just at the age where they need me at home with them more than at any other time in their lives.

"I deeply appreciate the interest and loyalty that my friends have shown in my behalf, and I shall never forget your many kindnesses and words of encouragement. I am grateful for the help I have received in being allowed to fill this office for at least a part of my husband's unexpired term. I feel that I have a heritage of friendship which means more to me than wealth."

MRS. GUY T. NEWTON,
County Superintendent, Milam County.

I considered the question of Mrs. Newton's candidacy definitely settled by her own statement. It was consequently with complete astonishment that I read on March 18, after three other candidates and I had in good faith entered upon active campaigns, the news of Mrs. Newton's sudden formal announcement. In all fairness to my position I feel that these facts should be known and that the voters of Milam County should be told that I entered this race only after consultation with Mrs. Newton and in accordance with what I honestly supposed were her duly considered decision and desires.

I therefore urge your sober and unprejudiced consideration of these facts and request you not to place the personal appeals of a candidate above the needs of our 6000 rural school children. These 6000 children are your children. Their interests will be best served by a County Superintendent who has made a life career of teaching and supervising schools and who has fitted himself for such a career by intensive University study. WHAT HOPS DO FOR BEER AND ALE
Hops are for flavor. They give to good beer and ale their lively, appetizing flavor, their pleasant, aromatic tang.
Brewers select and blend their hops with extreme care. In fact, every step in making beer and ale is conducted with masterly skill—to give you better-tasting, more wholesome beverages.
Now the brewing industry wants to do one thing more. It wants to protect your right to drink good beer and ale—by keeping the places where beer and ale are sold wholesome, too.
We want undesirable, anti-social establishments "cleaned-up or closed-up." A plan of action has already been put into effect in a number of states. This plan is being extended. We'd like you to know about it. Send for interesting free booklet.

Business Men in Cameron Give Views On Free Delivery

The Daily Herald presents the first of a series of interviews with prominent business men on the advantages of extending the free delivery service under the local postal system.

Inspectors will soon be in Cameron and the government will no doubt be glad to know what the citizens think. The Daily Herald has given much space and hopes to see free delivery service extended to the western part of the city.

Three prominent citizens interviewed today said:

"I think it is a progressive step toward the improvement of our mail service and a convenience to the patrons of the office. I heartily approve of this forward step to extend free delivery. It will be an advantage to people who pay taxes and need the service."—R. H. McIntosh at Cheeves Brothers.

"If part of the people enjoy free delivery I think the whole town should have it."—F. A. Marek of the Exchange Furniture Company.

"In a Democracy all people are supposed to have equal rights and equal treatment. All persons are equal citizens of the town and all are supposed to bear the burdens of the government in taxation and otherwise, they most certainly should be entitled to equal treatment in every respect, including the question of free mail delivery."—M. G. Cox.

Mrs. T. S. Donaldson of Pettibone was a business visitor here Friday.
